NO. 3

Benjamin McKinney started a letter to Texas a short time ago

Andy Barnett bought of Wm. Barnett, one 6 year old horse for $47.00.

Benjamin McKinney bought of W. G. Patrick, a bunch of shoats, for which he paid $3.45 per hun.

We highly appreciate the welcome THE TIMES receives. We will do our best to make the best paper ever published in Estill County.

Teacher—Which letter is the next to "H?"

Boy—Dunno, ma'am.

Teacher—What have I on both sides of my nose?

Boy—Freckles, ma'am.

There were 601 death reported at Lexington last year and only 279 births.

DIED.

On the 28th Ult., the little son of Tinker Truck et. Decease was 2 years old. He was buried at the family burying ground Thursday.

The young ladies of this community, seem to appreciate the opportunity of having jokes published on the boys, from way they are sending them in.

One of our best jokes is not printed this week for the lack of space

BAD FORTUNES.

Messrs. B. L. Burgher, Russell Christopher, Asa Barnett, and Benny McKinney, had their fortunes told, Sunday, the fortune-teller told him he would marry a dark complected girl and that the poor girl would grieve her self to death to think she had no husband; he informed Russell that he would marry a light complected maid, with neither black, blue nor gray eyes, because she couldn't have if she had him; Benny was told that his girl was all right but would have a white head in two months. He said Asa would marry a dark complected maiden, and turn a little but would do nothing most of the time.

WANTED — To exchange my heart to that of a Stone.
